WAIVER MEDICAL ASSISTANCE (MA) UTILITY ALLOWANCES

SUMMARY

The Family Investment Administration (FIA) annually reviews the utility and telephone allowances to determine if they should increase, decrease, or stay the same. The standard and limited utility allowances will increase for calendar year 2022; the amounts are specified below. The telephone allowance will remain the same.

The increase in the utility allowances is attributed to the change in FIA's formula to calculate the utility allowances. The U.S. Bureau of Labor and Statistics discontinued the Consumer Price Index series that we relied on in the past, which resulted in a change in our calculation formula.

Action Required

Effective January 1, 2022:

- The Standard Utility Allowance (SUA) will increase from $388 to $431 (+$43) per month.
- The Limited Utility Allowance (LUA) will increase from $238 to $264 (+$26) per month.
- The telephone allowance will remain $40.

The new allowances will migrate into the Eligibility and Enrollment (E&E) system on January 1, 2022.
